Obituary

"Death, to a good woman is but passing through a dark entry, out of one little dusky room of Her Father's house into another that is fair and large, lightsome and glorious and divinely entertaining." - - - Clarke (paraphrased)

Piccola, daughter of the late Tom and Martha Clark Turner was called home by her creator on Saturday, June 21, 1986, in the Bulloch Memorial Hospital, Statesboro, Georgia.

Piccola, affectionally called "Coote" by the family and friends, was born in Emanuel County, Canoochee, Georgia, and attended school there.

Piccola joined Mount Gilead Baptist Church at an early age and served faithfully until she moved to Statesboro in 1978.

Piccola was united in holy matrimony to John Calvin (Buddy) Brinson. To this happy union nine children were born and were named: Ruth, J. T., Howard, Myrtis, Clarence, J. C., Beaufort, Carolyn and Terence. These children were reared in a Christian home by Piccola, who was a very quiet, caring, loving mother, and her husband, John Calvin.

Piccola was a retired lunchroom employee for the Emanuel County School system.

To her children, she was very special. She leaves to cherish a beautiful memory, four daughters, Mrs. Ruth Payton Alexis of Statesboro, Ga., Mrs. Myrtis Hardy of Yonkers, N.Y., Mrs. Beaufort Garland of Riverdale, N.Y., and Mrs. Carolyn Walker of Atlanta, Ga.; five sons, J. T. Brinson of Westbury, Long Island, N.Y., Howard Brinson of Yonkers, N.Y., Clarence Brinson of Mt. Vernon, N.Y., J. C.
